"BEMA U's Transformational Leadership training course has given me the tools to understand both my dominant leadership type and that of those I interact with. It has helped me to accept that each have unique strengths which when they are recognized and aligned create organizational synergies. With this understanding, I will consistently work to balance my leadership profile and become the leader that I know I can be and that others need me to be."

-Bill Donovan, Shick Esteve

"As a result of participating in the Transformational Leadership workshop, I know that I want to be known for being an impactful, agile and energetic leader whose collaborative, entrepreneurial management style inspires peak performance and mobilizes the team to be the best in the industry. I want to instill pride and deliver a powerful, memorable experience for all stakeholders while delivering bottom line results."

-Christopher McClellan, Corbion"
